

Great Horwood Village Survey : October 2011

Section 6: NASH ROAD

(Odd numbers west side, even numbers east side)

1 and 3 Nash Road

HOUSE NO/NAME:	1 and 3
STREET:	Nash Road
BUILDING USE:	Residential
CONVERTED FROM EARLIER USE?	Built on the site of some former shops
PERIOD:	Post-1960
PLANFORM:	Semi-detached pair of houses, with integral garages
STYLE:	Modern
BUILDING/CLADDING MATERIALS:	Multi-coloured brick, metal garage doors
ROOFING MATERIALS:	Concrete tiles
ROOF FORM:	Gable-ended with shared central chimney stack
OTHER FEATURES/INFORMATION:	Modern 'picture windows'
CONDITION:	Good
NOTES:

5 Nash Road

HOUSE NO/NAME:	5
STREET:	Nash Road
BUILDING USE:	Residential
CONVERTED FROM EARLIER USE?	?? Originally two cottages, numbered 5 and 7.
PERIOD:	C17, altered C20
PLANFORM:	Single E-W 2-storey range, with modern porch to east and modern extension to west.
STYLE:	Vernacular
BUILDING/CLADDING MATERIALS:	Brick, cladding timber frame (exposed in east gable and to rear), set on rubblestone plinth. Weatherboarding to east gable and porch.
ROOFING MATERIALS:	Slate
ROOF FORM:	Half-hipped. Two intermediate chimney stacks.
OTHER FEATURES/INFORMATION:	Modern casement windows
CONDITION:	Good
NOTES:	Listed Grade 2 (number 1213554). List description adds 'Front rebuilt in brick late C19. Queen strut roof.'

9 Nash Road

HOUSE NO/NAME:	9
STREET:	Nash Road
BUILDING USE:	Residential
CONVERTED FROM EARLIER USE?	May be conversion from agricultural store or workshop.
PERIOD:	C19, altered.
PLANFORM:	Two storeys on cellar, with lower-level outbuilding to west and single internal chimney stack to east gable..
STYLE:	Vernacular
BUILDING/CLADDING MATERIALS:	Red and blue brick, rubblestone plinth. Outbuilding part tile-hung.
ROOFING MATERIALS:	Plain old clay tiles.
ROOF FORM:	Gable-ended
OTHER FEATURES/INFORMATION:	Windows are small and asymmetrically placed, indicating insertion at various times. Brickwork on the east gable and north front indicates that the upper storey is a later addition.
CONDITION:	Good
NOTES:

11 and 13 Nash Road

HOUSE NO/NAME:	11 and 13
STREET:	Nash Road
BUILDING USE:	Residential
CONVERTED FROM EARLIER USE?	Most likely originally a terrace of 4 workers' cottages.
PERIOD:	C19, altered and extended
PLANFORM:	Two storeys. Number 11 two bays; number 13 2 bays plus C20 1.5-bay extension including octagonal 2-storey extension on east.
STYLE:	Victorian
BUILDING/CLADDING MATERIALS:	Painted brick
ROOFING MATERIALS:	Natural slate, with two intermediate chimney stacks.
ROOF FORM:	Gable-ended, with north gable is at a 45-degree angle and pitched octagonal slate roof on extension.
OTHER FEATURES/INFORMATION:	Windows are symmetrically placed casements, probably modern replacements. The rear of the terrace, facing west, is without windows (except on the inset extension) – reason unknown.
CONDITION:	Good
NOTES:

Russets, 13a Nash Road

HOUSE NO/NAME:	Russets, 13a
STREET:	Nash Road
BUILDING USE:	Residential
CONVERTED FROM EARLIER USE?	No
PERIOD:	Post-1960
PLANFORM:	L-shaped single-storey bungalow with integral double garage
STYLE:	Modern
BUILDING/CLADDING MATERIALS:	Red brick
ROOFING MATERIALS:	Concrete tiles
ROOF FORM:	Gable-ended, with single small chimney
OTHER FEATURES/INFORMATION:
CONDITION:	Good
NOTES:

Hillside Cottage, 15 Nash Road

HOUSE NO/NAME:	Hillside Cottage, 15
STREET:	Nash Road
BUILDING USE:	Residential
CONVERTED FROM EARLIER USE?	No
PERIOD:	1900-1910
PLANFORM:	Two storey, L-shaped (original building plus C20 extension to north) with C20 porch and single garage at road level
STYLE:	'Edwardian'
BUILDING/CLADDING MATERIALS:	Painted brick
ROOFING MATERIALS:	Machine-made tiles
ROOF FORM:	Half-hipped main building with fully hipped extension, porch and garage.
OTHER FEATURES/INFORMATION:	Sash windows and shutters on main building
CONDITION:	Good
NOTES:

Blocked house fronts, east side of Nash Road

HOUSE NO/NAME:	No
STREET:	Nash Road
BUILDING USE:	Now a garden wall
CONVERTED FROM EARLIER USE?	Two former cottages
PERIOD:	C19 or earlier?
PLANFORM:
STYLE:	'Edwardian'
BUILDING/CLADDING MATERIALS:	Red and blue brick wall with one open and one blocked doorway, both with steps to roadway, and two blocked window openings.
ROOFING MATERIALS:	None
ROOF FORM:	None
OTHER FEATURES/INFORMATION:
CONDITION:	Poor
NOTES:	The blocked openings indicate the position of two earlier cottages.

The Chapel House, Nash Road

HOUSE NO/NAME:	The Chapel House
STREET:	Nash Road
BUILDING USE:	Residential
CONVERTED FROM EARLIER USE?	Originally a barn, converted to a Congregational chapel, now a dwelling
PERIOD:	C18 barn, converted 1821 and late C20.
PLANFORM:	Inserted upper floor
STYLE:	Vernacular
BUILDING/CLADDING MATERIALS:	Mixed red and blue brick
ROOFING MATERIALS:	Old plain clay tiles
ROOF FORM:	Gable-ended with stove pipe near western end
OTHER FEATURES/INFORMATION:
CONDITION:	Good
NOTES:	Listed Grade 2 (number 1289031). List description adds: 'North front has 3 barred wooden windows with pointed arched heads, and blocked ventilation slits. Double panelled doors between left-hand windows have fine wooden porch with entablature hood on slender Doric columns and pilasters. West end has 2 similar pointed windows and blocked rectangular window above. Altered East end has wide double doors with barred rectangular fanlight and wooden lintel, 3-light casement above with leaded outer panes. Royal Exchange fire insurance plaque above upper window. Interior has some original fittings, including gallery on slender wooden Doric columns at east end.'

2-12 Nash Road

HOUSE NO/NAME:	2-12
STREET:	Nash Road
BUILDING USE:	Residential
CONVERTED FROM EARLIER USE?	NO
PERIOD:	1950s
PLANFORM:	Three pairs semi-detached houses
STYLE:	Modern
BUILDING/CLADDING MATERIALS:	Part-rendered red brick
ROOFING MATERIALS:	Concrete tiles
ROOF FORM:	Hipped, with shared central chimney stack
OTHER FEATURES/INFORMATION:
CONDITION:	Good
NOTES:

