MEDMENHAM.

Chrysal; or the Adventures of a Guinea; wherein are exhibited Views of several striking Scenes, with curious and interesting Anecdotes. By an Adept. 2 vol. London: 1760. 12° ( )

In this book, which is ascribed to C. Johnstone, the profane orgies of Sir F. Dashwood and his associates at Medmenham are said to be described. The third edition, in 4 vol. 12°, was published in 1762. It is but fair to add that Dr. Benjamin Bates, the last survivor of "the monks of Medmenham," repeatedly declared that the association, bad as it was, was unjustly stigmatized by some of the sarcastic publications of the period. See Gibbe's, Worthies, etc., p. 31. An Olio, etc., by W. Davis, 1814, 12°, includes a key to Chrysal.

————— Press.

Benjamin Leverett exercised the art of printing in this town in the reign of George III. The only known production of his press is a whimsical advertisement commencing thus:—

"At Mr. Christopher Towles in High Street in Coventry, and at Miss Towles in Penny-Farthing Street in Oxford. Young ladies are genteely bordered," etc. A copy of this broadside is in the Bodleian Library. It is, says Mr. Allnutt, without date, but about 1779, and bears this imprint:—

"Newport-Pagnell, Printed by B. Leverett, where every Article of Letter-press Printing is reasonably performed."

A copy of Towle's advertisement given in Staines's History of Newport Pagnell (pp. 175—179) contains the words "His present Schooles is in 1783; in Oxford," etc. This seems to be from a later issue.

The first book printed here was perhaps the following:—

Poems translated from the French of Madame de la Mothe Guion, by the late William Cowper, Esq., etc. Newport-Pagnel, printed and sold by J. Wakefield;...1801. 18° (H.G.)

End: "Printed by J. Wakefield, High Street, Newport-Pagnel." A second edition is dated 1802.

OLNEY.

Newton (John). An Address to the Inhabitants of Olney. London: 1768. 12° (H.G.)

Pp. 21. The author's name is at the end.

A True and particular Account, of, a surprising and wonderful Noise, that was heard in the Steeple of the Church at Oney, in the County of Bucks, on Friday the 1st of July, 1768, in the Night; occasioned by the ringing of the Bell in the Steeple: It so surprised the People in the Town, that they called up the Parson of the Parish, the Clerk, and the Sexton, and went into the Church together, but found no Body there, they joined then in Prayer, but the Bell still kept tolling for two Hours; then a Voice called out and said, "There will be great Signs and Wonders seen in many Parts of England." Which is a great Token of strange and wonderful Things. London: Printed by Richard Thompson.

sm. 8° (Bodl.)

Pp. 8. The story is a pure fabrication. The names given are all fictitious.

Olney Hymns, in Three Books. London: 1779. 12° (Bodl.)

This is the First Edition. The Preface is signed by John Newton. Some of the hymns are by Cowper. Pp. xxviii. and 428.

Bean (James). A Farewell Address to the Inhabitants of the Parish of Olney, in the County of Bucks. London: 1796. 12° (H.G.)

Storer (James S.). The Rural Walks of Cowper; displayed in a series of Views near Olney, Bucks: representing the Scenery exemplified in his Poems; with descriptive Sketches, and a Memoir of the Poet's Life. London: [1822]. 8° (H.G.)

Pp. x., and, after a leaf not paged, [13]—69. The author's name ("James Storer") is attached to the dedication. The work is embellished with 15 views, and a plate containing a fac-simile of the poet's writing. It is briefly noticed in The Gent. Mag. for June, 1822. This book was published in three sizes—8°, 12°, 18°. (Adv.)

There is a later issue of the same impression: it contains, besides the plates before mentioned, and as a frontispiece, a portrait of "Cowper from his shadow taken at Olney," with his signature, and below these a figure of "The Dog Beau (stuffed)." In this later issue the engraved views are slightly altered, and they have an additional border of double lines. Some copies have an "Appendix" of 7 pages, printed in or about 1835. (H.G.)

This book is a republication, with new and different plates, of the far more common work intitled Cowper Illustrated, which first appeared in 1803, and will be found mentioned under Weston-under-Wood.

James-Sargant Storer and his son Henry-Sargant Storer, both connected with Olney, were eminent engravers, and their works are almost countless. The son died in 1837, and the father in 1854. Of the latter there is a memoir in The Gent. Mag. for March, 1854. The name "Sargant" (though he did not use it) is there ascribed to him, as it is also in an old printed list of the family.

A Sermon preached in the Parish Church of Olney, to improve the Death of Henry Gauntlett, Vicar, &c.
Printed by Thomas Collingridge, Olney: 1834.

sm. 8° (Bodl.)

By the Rev. Thomas Fry, Rector of Emberton, but anon. Pp. 20.

Gauntlett (Catharine T.). Memoir of the late Rev.
Henry Gauntlett, Vicar of Olney, Bucks. London:
1835. 8° (H.G.)

With a portrait. In the Appendix are many letters from William Cowper to Samuel Teedon, of Olney, whose diary is cited in a note. Title and advertisement, 2 leaves. Memoir, pp. 238. Appendix, pp. [353]—388. The reason of the hiatus is that the Appendix is taken from Vol. II. of Mr. Gauntlett's Sermons (2 vol. London: 1835. 8°). The Memoir is also prefixed to Vol. I. of the Sermons.

The Olney Magazine. No. 1. July, 1836. Olney:
printed and published by T. P. Lovell, July 20,
1836. 8° (H.G.)

Pp. 33. The light brown wrapper has the above title on it, and a silhouette portrait of Cowper. Printed, for the most part, on single leaves.

Langley (D. B.), D.C.L. "Hidden Things of Darkness to be brought to Light." A Sermon by the Rev. Dr. Langley, Vicar of Olney; preached in Olney Church,....January 9th, 1853: relating to the Incendiary Fires which have lately taken place in that Parish. Olney: 1853. sm. 8° (Bodl.)

No fewer than eleven copies of verses composed with reference to the same lamentable fires were printed at the time as broadsides. (Bodl.)

Literary and Historical Associations of Olney and its Neighbourhood. With Photographs and Wood Engravings. London : 1886. 8° (B.M.)

Portions of this work relate to Weston, Gayhurst, Tyringham, Laven-don, Ravenstone, Clifton, Emberton, Ekeney, Petsoe, and Filgrave.

————— Press.

The first recorded printer at Olney was no other than the poet Cowper.
(See his letter of 12 Aug. 1782, preserved by Hayley.) Nothing else is known to have issued from the press at Olney until 1833, when some bills were printed by Thomas Collingridge. The first book or pamphlet printed here is probably the Sermon of 1834, above mentioned.

PENN.

STONE.

See under HARTWELL.

STOWE.

Man's Masterpiece, or the Best Improvement of the Worst Condition, in the Exercise of Christian Duty: by P. T. Kt. London: 1658. 12° (Dr. L.)

With portraits of Sir Peter and Lady Elinor Temple, engraved by R. Gaywood. Pp. xxiv. 251. With the exception of one sold at Stowe, 1849 (lot 5076), the only complete copy known is in the possession of the Rev. Dr. Lee. It is interlined with corrections in Sir P. Temple's handwriting.

The Gardens of Stowe, the Seat of the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Cobham. ... 1730. fol. (cat.)

The book includes a map and plan, and 15 (?) large double-paged views, by Rigaud and Baron. Mention is made of a large ground-plan of the seat, 1731, and a series of 14 large views of the mansion, etc., engraved by Rigaud and Baron, and dated 1739. These were published by S. Bridgeman. Whether they are altogether identical with the map, plan, and views before referred to, seems uncertain.

Stowe: the Gardens of ... Richard Lord Viscount Cobham. Addressed to Mr. Pope. London: 1732. fol. (B.M.)

Stowe, etc. [Another edition.] London: 1732. 8° (B.M.)

A folio copy of this poem in the Bodleian Library bears on its title, in the autograph of Edward Harley, 2nd Earl of Oxford, "By Mr. West, Nephew to my Lord Cobham." This was Gilbert West. The work has been erroneously ascribed to G. Bickham.

A Description of the Gardens of ... Lord Viscount Cobham, at Stow, etc. Northampton: 1744. 8° (B.M.)

Described as "sold by B. Seeley, Writing-Master in Buckingham." So is the next. The title of the owner of the estate is of course varied in later editions.

A Description, etc. The second edition. Northampton: 1745. 8° (B.M.)

A Description, etc. The third edition. Northampton: 1746. 8° (Bodl.)

In this and the next two editions B. Seeley is styled "Writing-Master, Bookseller, and Stationer in Buckingham."

A Description, etc. The fourth edition. Northampton: 1747. 8° (Bodl.)

A copy in the B. M. is described as 12°.

A Description, etc. The fifth edition. Northampton: 1748. 8° (Bodl.)

A copy is described as having numerous engravings—perhaps of later date.

A Description, etc. The sixth edition. Northampton: 1749. 8° (B.M.)

A copy of this date is described as having 40 views. These views, perhaps with some variations, appear to be in most copies of the book, until near the end of the century.

Stow: a Description, etc. London: [c. 1750.] 8° (Bodl.) Plates, 40.

This and other editions to 1788 inclusively have the name of B. Seeley at the end of the dedication.

With 2 folding plates. The preface signed W. J. S., i.e., Smith. This magnificent collection, happily, was not dispersed, but purchased by the late Earl of Ashburnham, by private contract, for £8000. After his decease, 1878, it was again in danger of dispersion, but, with the exception of a few volumes which were returned to Stowe, it was at length acquired by the nation, for £45,000. The MSS. relating to England are now deposited in the British Museum.

STRATFORD (WATER-).

A Letter from a Gentleman in Buckinghamshire, near Water-Stratford, to his Brother, Mr. Thomas Pick-
